

MERCURY SPEECH & LANGUAGE

Each syllable is a seed, each word a story waiting to be told.

Job Posting: Speech-Language Pathologist (SLP) at Mercury Speech & Language

Are you an SLP who's equal parts curious and driven? Someone who thrives on bringing big ideas to life and delivering real results? At Mercury Speech & Language, we believe in fostering creativity, collaboration, and meaningful impact—all while supporting the well-being and balance of our team. If you're motivated, innovative, and looking for a place to grow, we'd love to meet you.

CAD $96-120 per hour

Why Mercury Speech & Language?

- Vision Meets Action: Have big ideas? We're here to help you turn them into reality. Whether you want to build new therapy programs, mentor others, or innovate with advanced tools, this is your chance to make an impact.
- Creative Freedom: We value fresh ideas and flexible thinking. You'll have the autonomy to design therapy approaches that reflect your strengths and creativity.
- Supportive Growth: Enjoy mentorship, leadership opportunities, and options that reward your contributions and encourage long-term growth.
- Flexibility & Balance: As a company led by moms, we know how important it is to balance a fulfilling career with a rich personal life. You'll have control over your schedule and caseload to suit your priorities.
- Diverse & Rewarding Work: Work with children and adults across varied settings (office, homes, schools, care homes), and see the real difference your work makes every day.

Who You Are

We're looking for clinicians who bring a spark of curiosity and a commitment to excellence:

- Curiosity-Driven: You're always learning, asking questions, and seeking new ways to improve outcomes.
- Visionary: You think big and see opportunities to innovate, while staying grounded in actionable steps.
- Hard-Working Yet Balanced: You bring focus and dedication to your work while knowing when to rest, recharge, and maintain balance.
- Creative Problem-Solver: You thrive on adapting and designing therapy approaches that engage and inspire clients.
- Collaborative: You value teamwork and know how to build trust and connection with clients, families, and colleagues.

The Details

Location: Based in Burnaby and Vancouver and throughout the community (homes, schools, care homes). A reliable method of transportation is needed (a driver's license is a plus).

Requirements: Must be licensed (or pending registration) with the College of Health and Care Professionals of BC. New grads and SLPs from outside Canada are encouraged to apply.

At Mercury Speech & Language, we're not just building a practice—we're creating a supportive community of professionals who value innovation, impact, and balance. You'll have the space to grow, create, and make a real difference while enjoying flexibility and support that respects who you are. If you're ready to bring your curiosity, vision, and creativity to a team that values both excellence and balance, we'd love to hear from you.
